

DESCRIPTION

The Pop Out Walking Billboard puts a twist on traditional sandwich boards with its lightweight structure and attractive design. This mobile display is constructed from our Pop Out display and features a neck strap, allowing it to function like a sandwich board. The custom print is finished with header tape around the edge and has a lightweight fiberglass pole frame. To set up this mobile Pop Out display, your client simply unfolds the custom print, slips on the neck strap, and it is ready to go. Because of this quick and easy assembly, the Pop Out Walking Billboard can be folded up and stored into the included carrying case for travel and transport. The Pop Out Walking Billboard is ideal for use both indoors and outdoors to promote a local ice cream shop's opening day or to draw attendees to a company's booth at a convention.
